

The „Sisi Road“ – discover the life of Empress Elisabeth...

... in Budapest 2022

From Bad Ischl via the “Wachau” region to Vienna, pass Bratislava and further to Budapest – about 520km.

8th of June in 1867 – Empress Elisabeth and Emperor Franz Joseph have been crowned in the Matthias church to Queen and King of Hungary – after the compromise between Austria and Hungary. This was the reason for the Hungarians to present the Queen and the King castle Gödöllő.

This gesture shows the enormous popularity of the royal couple. Castle Gödöllő (also called the “Hungarian Versailles”) has often been the sanctuary of the Queen Elisabeth.

In the nearby situated Elisabeth Park, there is a memorial of Elisabeth and a memorial plaque shows her favorite place.

Just 5 kilometers away from castle Gödöllő, the Lázár horse riding park in Domonyvölgy with riding- and dressage demonstration is situated, which reminiscent of the enthusiasm of the Empress and Queen for the equestrian sport.

Our tip: A trip to Herend, in the oldest porcelain factory and biggest in the world, shows the noble porcelain pieces – which were also a great favorite of Emperor and King Franz Joseph.

Enjoy your stay in Budapest, surrounded by numerous associations to the kingdom and fascinated by the loyalty and worship of the Hungarians to their Queen.
